2/22/18	SGS meeting with [REDACTED] & Michelle Langstraat	SGS reviews protocol with [REDACTED] says she does not want to file a complaint, but wants to resolve this informally, without using her name. She said she went to his apt. and hung out with him when she was a freshman—this was in 2015 (he was 26 or 27 at that time). At that stage of her life, she thought that was a fun thing to do.. He gave her her zanax and another time mescaline... She says he self harmed, putting gashes in his legs, and that the times she spent with him are "jumbled" in her head so its' confusing. She said he made her perform oral sex on him but then said she was very drugged up and can't really remember. She said it was terrifying and he told her if she called the cops he would kill himself. He was telling her about his own childhood trauma. She says when she woke up the next morning, everything was normal and she just went home. She says she later met another woman and she believes that [REDACTED] has given other women mescaline as well. [REDACTED] says it is a bad drug. She said that [REDACTED] is not contacting her except for 2016 he saw her at Fred Meyer and she ran to her car and he emailed her and said when I see you I smile...you don't have to be rude—grow up. She says she deleted everything about him. He hasn't contacted her since, but she wants to make sure no one

		else has the experience she had. She talked about a "No-silence" web page where women are voicing concerns about [REDACTED] but no one has come forward. She does not want to file a complaint about him and does not want her name used. SGS says that since she referenced self-harm and violence, she will consult and refer to Michael Sledge.
2/22/18	[REDACTED] EOO	[REDACTED] sends several Facebook screenshots of comments written by other female WWU students, as requested by SGS (On 3/10/17 [REDACTED], another student met with Mohammed Cato and Mallory Sullivan and felt that [REDACTED] was dangerous and felt like he was targeting younger girls at parties, but they were not making a complaint about him personally; had not experienced anything from him).
3/12/18	[REDACTED] emails SGS and Michael Sledge	[REDACTED] makes a mandatory report after [REDACTED] discloses "a safety issue" about enrolling in [REDACTED] next quarter. [REDACTED] informs the options he gave [REDACTED] to enroll in alternate courses.
3/12/18	Michael Sledge emails [REDACTED]	Michael confirms he has been and will continue to be in contact with [REDACTED]. Michael indicates that he knows [REDACTED] and that he himself has been a victim of abuse and has had some mental health issues, but he has been improving over the years he has known him. He doesn't believe there are any recent issues.
3/12/18	[REDACTED] emails SGS and Michelle Langstraat	[REDACTED] would like to move forward making a report with several other students. Provides cell phone number to set an appointment.
3/13/18	SGS calls [REDACTED] twice.	The cell phone number provided by [REDACTED] goes to busy signal.
3/13/18	SGS emails [REDACTED] to WWU and personal email addresses	Please call EOO when convenient to arrange follow up. No response from [REDACTED].
3/14/18	[REDACTED] calls SGS
3/27/18	Sue meets with Michael Sledge, Darin Rasmussen and Michelle Langstraat	Michael says we can't be moving forward without a complaint/name ... says there have been no reports that [REDACTED] has been violent; Michael and Michelle say they will plan to meet with [REDACTED] to try to help her navigate around classes he may be in. Darin noted some past history with [REDACTED] as a child... but nothing in the recent past or as an adult. He does not see an imminent threat.
4/1/18	[REDACTED] emails SGS and Michael Sledge	Forwards copies of BPD reports involving [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] indicates that she and several other people are coordinating a time with Jessica Stillwell to report their joint experiences. SGS indicates that regarding the police reports and any violence, that Michael Sledge will be handling that. [REDACTED] says she will file a complaint with Michael/Jessica in Student Life.
4/3/18	Michael emails [REDACTED] (cc: SGS)	Michael thanks [REDACTED] for getting in touch. Provides the best way to contact and set up appointments with Jessica. Suggests compiling a written complaint that includes relevant details to help expedite the student conduct process. Michael reviews the police reports and tells [REDACTED] that he does not see [REDACTED] as a threat currently and that the bulk of the reports involve welfare checks on

		him. ■ says she feels like ■ can still be a danger and she does not feel safe in having her name exposed so she will not file a complaint. SGS lets ■ know that she and Michael will stay in touch about this issue and monitor this situation.
